

The flaming entrails, nose of Tyrant dye;
The cheek of lillies, and the ferret's eye;
Afflictive dreams, that terribly by night;
Fallacious hearing, and imperfect sight;
And vapours, froids, that from thy bosom stray,
Which thou dost raise, and thou the best canst lay.
From thee a thousand flur'ring whims escape
Like hasty births, that ne'er have perfect shape.
Thine ideots seem in gay delusion fair;
But born in flame, they soon expire in air.

ANNAPOLIS.

Some few Days ago, four Men were drowned in Potomack River, by the Overloading of a Long Boat. One of them was Second Mate of Capt. Coolidge; the other three belong'd to Capt. Montgomery.

Last Wednesday were brought to Town from Cecil County, and committed to Prison here, Joseph Wilson and Isaac Wright, on suspicion of counterfeiting some of the Current Money of this Province. They are now remanded back to Cecil County, where they are soon to receive their Tryals; a special Commission being issued, appointing Judges to hold a Court of Oyer and Terminer there for that Purpose. Some counterfeit Twenty Shilling Bills, un-sign'd, and one sign'd, together with the Plate, were found in Wilson's Pocket Book; and three Five Shilling Bills were found, which had been pass'd; but 'tis very likely, from several Circumstances, that very little, if any more had been utter'd; for this Piece of Roguery seems to be upp'd in the Bud. However, lest there should be any of it passing, we would inform our Readers, that the Five Shilling Bills are very ill dore, and instead of ET in the Motto, it is ED in the Counterfeits; and the whole Motto, as well as the Coat of Arms, extremely ill cut; and the Bill throughout, on comparing it with a true Bill, will shew the Fraud in almost every Word. The counterfeit Twenty Shilling Bills are somewhat better done than the Fives; but on a small Examination, the Cheat there will be discovered in every Line, and almost every Word.

Last Friday two open Flats, with six or eight Persons in them (chiefly Heads of Families), sailed from hence for West River, which have not been heard of since; and it is feared they are lost, as Friday-Night and Saturday proved very tempestuous.

Early this Morning expired, much lamented by some, and rejoiced at by others, the Act of Assembly of this Province For Trial of all Matters of Fact in the several Counties where they have arisen or shall arise.
